Meet “Chee”, the ARTS program mascot designed by Artful Afternoon guest Chelsey Sharp. Stylish Chee t-shirts are available in youth and adult sizes for $10.00. Visit the ARTS program office at the Community Center – room 308: Monday - Friday, 9am – 5pm. Also available at Artful Afternoons.

ARTFUL AFTERNOONS

There’s always something new to see and do at Greenbelt’s monthly open house for the arts!

First Sunday of every month at the Greenbelt Community Center
1-5pm. All ages. FREE!

Every month...

- Enjoy hands-on arts workshops. Ages 4 and up with adult supervision unless otherwise noted. Usually 1-3pm – call to confirm workshop times.
- Tour the studios of our Artists in Residence working in a wide variety of media. Some work available for purchase. 1-5pm.
- See diverse exhibitions of contemporary artwork, frequently including self-guided and take-home activities for children. 1-5pm.
- Visit the exhibits of the Greenbelt Museum including a historic house at 10-B Crescent Road with guided tours plus an additional exhibit at the Community Center: “Living the Healthy Life: Sports, Health and Fitness in the New Deal Era”. 1-5pm.

Artful Afternoons this fall:

September 4

Labor Day Weekend!

Visit the Community Center while touring the Festival in the heart of historic Old Greenbelt. Enjoy community art exhibits and make your own wearable creations with Celestine Ranney-Howes, Artist in Residence.

October 2

Community Center 10th Anniversary Celebration!

Hands-on arts workshops throughout the afternoon. Greenbelt Museum panel discussion on the history of the Community Center. Plus much more!

November 6

3pm: FREE musical performance with hilarious children’s entertainer Barry Louis Polisar, a four-time Parent Choice Award winner. 1-3pm: Make birdseed ornaments with Artist in Residence Jean Newcomb to decorate Greenbelt’s holiday tree.

December 4

Festival of Lights! Shop for unique, hand-made wares at the annual juried Art and Craft Fair, 11am-4pm. From 1-3pm, help create a beautiful stage set for the Greenbelt New Year celebration with Janice Bauer, Artist in Residence.

EXHIBITIONS

- * Great contemporary art, in your own back yard! New exhibits open every six weeks.
- * Schedule a gallery talk for your group. Free, guided talks can often be arranged for groups of children, teens, or adults. Call 240-542-2057. Group visits can often include a hands-on art project for a small fee.
- * Bring the kids! Many exhibits are accompanied by a special “i spy” gallery guide for children. Kids ages 5-10 can enter to win a prize by answering questions about the show.
